- The company has signed a collaboration agreement with the University of A Coruña, the NGO Solidariedade Galega and the Local Council of Oleiros
- The agreement encompasses donations of school equipment and material in the educational centers affiliated

In Vigo, September 6, 2018.- The director of CSR in the Nueva Pescanova Group, Ángel Matamoro, rector of the University of A Coruña, Julio Abalde, the mayor of Oleiros, Ángel García Seoane, and the president of the NGO Solidariedade Galega, Enrique Rodríguez, have signed a collaboration agreement for the donation, transportation and distribution of school material and equipment to educational centers in countries in Latin America.

This is a framework agreement which will encompass all the donations to educational centers in the areas where the Nueva Pescanova Group is present. The first delivery made under this agreement shall be aimed at schools in the cities of Chinandega and Puerto Morazán in Nicaragua, where they will distribute desks, chairs, tables, books, computers, and bicycles, among other things.

In this way, the company is continuing its solidarity work by sending a container of school material and equipment to these towns in Nicaragua, and with the collaboration of the Local Council of Oleiros.

As explained by Ángel Matamoro, director of CSR of the Nueva Pescanova Group, “this agreement is part of a long-term commitment by the Group, which sets up different actions and programs for educational improvement and well-being in communities in the countries where the company is present. An example of this is the management of the CEPAC School of Champerico (Guatemala) through its affiliate, NovaGuatemala, and its foundation, Fundanova, where studies are undertaken by more than 500 children and young people, and in which literacy classes are given for adults, among other activities”.
