Preamble

1. The Nueva Pescanova Group is a multinational business group engaged in the fishing, farming, processing and commercialization of seafood products, especially fish and shellfish. It is in its corporate DNA to operate its business in an ethical manner and in accordance with the strictest principles of transparency, honesty and integrity. In this regard, the Nueva Pescanova Group has its own code of ethics and good business practice called "Our Code of Ethics" by means of which a set of guidelines and principles of conduct is established with the aim of ensuring the legal, ethical, honest and responsible behavior of all its professionals.
2. The Code of Ethics of the Nueva Pescanova Group is based on the principle of due control over all the professionals of the Nueva Pescanova Group (directors, administrators, legal representatives, managers, employees and other people that may be under its authority) for the prevention, detection, tackling and resolution of any sort of misconduct (both from a legal and an ethical point of view), all in accordance with the regime of criminal liability of legal persons in force in the legal system of the areas where the Group operates.
3. This Corporate Policy is therefore a result of the decision made by the Board of Directors of the parent company of the Nueva Pescanova Group, Nueva Pescanova, S.L., included in Our Code of Ethics, for the implementation in the Group of crime prevention policies and programs that are effective and dynamic and that establish efficient corporate measures for proper monitoring, supervision and control to prevent, detect and discover crimes and/or misconduct that may be committed in the course of its professional activity, on its behalf or at its request, and for its direct or indirect benefit.

CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Objective

1. The aim of this Corporate Policy is to develop the Code of Ethics of the Nueva Pescanova Group by establishing measures to prevent its professionals, in the exercise of their duties, from committing an unlawful or criminal act, even when such acts may somehow benefit the Group, at present or in future, directly or indirectly.
2. All the professionals of the Nueva Pescanova Group, regardless of their hierarchical position, role or location, must perform their duties in compliance with the legislation and regulations in force.
3. All the professionals of the Nueva Pescanova Group must know and comply with the legislation applicable to our business area, which is the foundation of the Group's culture of compliance and is protected by the Board of Directors of the parent company of the Group, Nueva Pescanova S.L., its governing and executive bodies and, more specifically, the Compliance Unit.
4. This Corporate Policy is the reference framework for the criminal liability prevention programs that may be implemented in the Spanish or foreign companies of the Nueva Pescanova Group.

Article 2. Scope of implementation

1. This Corporate Policy must be complied with by all the professionals of the Nueva Pescanova Group.
2. The Nueva Pescanova Group is made up of the Spanish company Nueva Pescanova, S.L. (parent company) and all the Spanish and foreign companies (subsidiaries) controlled, directly or indirectly, by the parent company Nueva Pescanova, S.L.
3. By professionals of the Nueva Pescanova Group we mean every director, manager, representative and employee of the Nueva Pescanova Group, regardless of their location and employment relationship with the company.

Article 3. Development of this Corporate Policy. Criminal Risks Prevention Programs in the Nueva Pescanova Group

1. Criminal Risks prevention in the Nueva Pescanova Group is seen as a global, comprehensive and cross-sectional issue, so all the provisions that make up the Corporate Governance and Compliance Requirements System must ensure the regulatory compliance of all sorts and prevent any misconduct (specially criminal conduct) anywhere in the world where the Nueva Pescanova Group operates or develops its business activity.
2. In order to comply with the specific provisions of the criminal justice systems in force in the countries where the Group operates, this Corporate Policy may be modified locally through the implementation in said countries of criminal risks prevention or corporate compliance programs for the professionals operating in said legal systems.
3. Local criminal risks prevention or corporate compliance programs must always be in accordance with the Code of Ethics of the Nueva Pescanova Group, this Corporate Policy and any other provisions of our Corporate Governance and Compliance Requirements System with regard to crime prevention.
4. The Compliance Unit is responsible, under the supervision, evaluation and review of the Governance, Responsibility and Sustainability Commission of the Board of Directors of Nueva Pescanova, S.L., for promoting and ensuring the proper implementation of the aforementioned programs wherever it is required by the criminal justice system applicable where the Group operates or wherever it is an effective mechanism for the defense of the interests of the Group, the subsidiary concerned and/or its professionals.

CHAPTER II. RULES OF CONDUCT FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRIMINAL RISKS IN THE NUEVA PESCANOVA GROUP

Article 4. Protection of integrity and physical and moral indemnity

1. The Nueva Pescanova Group rejects and strictly prohibits any form of physical or verbal violence, threats, coercion or extortion, sexual or work-related aggression or harassment, psychological or moral harassment, abuse of authority or superiority, as well as any other act or behaviour that is hostile, humiliating, degrading, offensive or prejudicial to the dignity and moral integrity of persons.
2. The Group shall not tolerate and shall act energetically towards any professional of the Nueva Pescanova Group who, either in the work environment or in their business relations with third parties, solicits favours of a sexual nature from a person, thus causing an intimidating, hostile or humiliating situation, or when these favours are solicited taking advantage of the work situation or of the hierarchical superiority they may have over the victim, or under the threat (express or tacit) of causing them a harm regarding their legitimate work, professional, commercial or business expectations.
3. It is forbidden to engage in any behaviors or practices related to prostitution, sexual exploitation or corruption of minors within the Nueva Pescanova Group.
4. The Nueva Pescanova Group shall protect the life, health and physical and moral integrity of its professionals and third parties providing services to the Group in their facilities or workplaces, by carefully complying with the occupational risk prevention standards applicable in each case and providing the means necessary to ensure the appropriate health and safety measures are complied with.
5. The Nueva Pescanova Group firmly rejects and shall not tolerate any conduct or actions of humiliation, contempt or discredit, or that encourage, promote or incite hatred, hostility, discrimination or violence against a group, a part of that group or against a specific person because of their belonging to such group, for racist, anti-Semitic, anti-Roma or other reasons relating to ideology, religion or beliefs, family situation, ethnicity, race or nationality, national origin, sex, sexual orientation or identity, gender, aporophobia, illness or disability. It is likewise prohibited to publicly deny, trivialise or glorify crimes of genocide, crimes against humanity or crimes against persons and property protected in the case of armed conflict, or to glorify the perpetrators of such crimes, when committed against a group or part of that group, or against a specific person because of their belonging to such group, for any of these reasons.

Article 5. Defense of fair labor relations

1. Under no circumstances will the Nueva Pescanova Group impose on their employees' harmful working or social security conditions that adversely affect, suppress or restrict the rights to which they are entitled according to the legislation, collective agreements or individual contracts that are applicable in each case, nor will use contracting formulas unrelated to the employment/labor contract when, in accordance with the applicable law, it proceeds to establish an employment/labor relationship.
2. The Nueva Pescanova Group will not hire or employ people without registering them with the corresponding Social Security authorities and, where applicable, without having obtained the appropriate authorization or work permit. In the case of foreign workers, the obligations imposed by the applicable labor and aliens laws must be complied with. Any conducts or behaviors related, directly or indirectly, to labor trafficking, fraudulent immigration or the illegal immigration of foreign citizens are strictly prohibited.
3. It is strictly prohibited to engage in any form of forced, compulsory or child labor in the Nueva Pescanova Group, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Conventions of the International Labor Organization and, more specifically, its Convention 138 on the minimum working age and its Convention 188 on labor rights in the fishing industry.
4. The Nueva Pescanova Group will not discriminate in the employment field (or in any other field) against a person because of his or her ideology, religion or beliefs, family situation, belonging to an ethnic group, race or nation, national origin, sex, age, sexual or gender orientation or identity, gender reasons, aporophobia or social exclusion, illness or disability, for being a legal or trade union representative of the employees, for being related to other professionals of the Group, or for the use of any of the official languages in each of the countries where the Group operates.
5. The Nueva Pescanova Group professionals must not prevent or restrict the exercise of the freedom of association or the right to strike by means of deception, taking advantage of those in need or coercion.

Article 6. Protection of personal privacy and corporate's secrets of third parties

1. The Nueva Pescanova Group professionals must not, under any circumstances:
 - a. Intercept communications without the consent of their intended recipient or without the express and explicit legal authorization to do so, or use any listening, transmission, recording or playback devices that constitute an infringement of the privacy of other people.
 - b. Obtain, store, disclose, disseminate or transfer information, documents, letters, emails or any other personal data that constitute an infringement of someone's privacy without their consent, even when one has not participated in obtaining said information but is aware of its illicit origin.
 - c. Access an internal or external information system without being authorized to do so or by breaching the established security measures.
 - d. Use technical devices or technological tools to intercept private transmissions of computer data without being authorized to do so.

2. The Nueva Pescanova Group professionals must not obtain by any means data, written or electronic documents, computer media or other devices to reveal a business secret to a third party or disseminate, disclose or transfer a business secret to a third party if one is aware of its illicit origin even if one has not participated in obtaining them.

Article 7. Prevention of fraud and other conducts

1. The Nueva Pescanova Group does not tolerate or allow any form of internal or external fraud.
2. The Nueva Pescanova Group professionals must not, for any reasons:
 - a. Deceive someone into perpetrating an asset disposal to their detriment or to the detriment of third parties.
 - b. Manipulate computers or similar devices for the unauthorized transfer of any assets.
 - c. Fraudulently use credit or debit cards, traveler's checks or any other corporeal or non-corporeal non-cash payment instrument (or the data contained in any of them) to carry out operations of any kind to the detriment of their rightful holder/owner or a third party. A non-cash payment instrument is any device and protected procedure, physical or virtual, that allows the user to transfer money or valuable consideration without using coins or bank notes (electronic purses or digital wallets, virtual currencies and other crypto-assets that can be used as a means of payment in a transaction).
 - d. Develop, install, obtain, possess or provide to third parties devices, instruments or data or computer programs specifically designed or adapted to defraud or cause patrimonial damage to another.
 - e. Alter, copy, duplicate or counterfeit in any way credit or debit cards or traveler's checks or any other non-cash payment instrument, or obtain, possess or use them being aware of their counterfeit nature.
 - f. Modify, manufacture, introduce, transport, sell, export, or distribute counterfeit or altered currency being aware of its counterfeit nature.
 - g. Exchange currency from unauthorized dealers.
 - h. Sell, encumber or rent personal or real property fraudulently claiming the right to use thereof.
 - i. Own personal or real property concealing any encumbrances on it or, having transferred it to another as free, encumber or transfer it again before its final disposal.
 - j. Forge a contract or alter or falsify a document which may be misleading as to its authenticity or may imply the involvement of people who did not participate in them, or attribute to the people that did participate statements different to those actually made.
3. The Nueva Pescanova Group will not allow any misleading information or false characteristics concerning its products or services in its offers, promotions or advertisements.
4. The Nueva Pescanova Group and its professionals are strictly prohibited to perform, take part in or become involved in any way in any one of the following actions (including incitement, conspiracy or proposal to carry out said actions):
 - a. Extract raw materials or essential items from the markets or sectors in which they operate with the intention to discontinue supplies, force price changes or jeopardise consumers.

- b. Falsify the economic-financial information contained in issue prospectuses for any financial instruments or in the information that must be published and disseminated in accordance with stock market legislation applicable in each case on the present and future resources, activities and businesses of the companies of the Group, in order to attract investors or depositors, invest any kind of financial asset or obtain funding by any means.
 - c. Invoice higher amounts for products or services as a result of having altered or manipulated the automatic devices used to measure the cost or price of said products or services.
 - d. Use violence, threats, deception or any other artifice to alter the prices that would have resulted from the free market of products, goods, financial instruments, related spot contracts, reference indices, services or any other moveable or immovable property that could be traded on the contract market.
 - e. Disseminate news or rumours or transmit false or deceitful indications about people or companies, knowingly offering false or partly false economic data in order to alter or preserve the quoted price of a financial instrument or related spot contract, or manipulate the calculation of a reference index.
 - f. Carry out transactions, transmit false or deceitful indications, order operations susceptible to providing false or deceitful indications of the offer, demand or price of a financial instrument, a related spot contract or reference indices or, using the same information, assure a dominant position in the market of these instruments or contracts, with the purpose of setting their prices at abnormal or artificial levels.
 - g. Perform acts to purchase, transmit or transfer a financial instrument, or cancel or modify an order related to a financial instrument using privileged information obtained through reserved access, reveal it to a third party or use the privileged information for any one of these acts at the third party's recommendation. For these purposes:
 - i. Privileged information is considered to be all information of a specific nature that directly or indirectly refers to one or several marketable securities or instruments comprised within the scope of application of the pertinent securities market regulations, or one or several issuers of these marketable securities or financial instruments, which has not been published and in the event of its publication, it could considerably influence the quoted price of the marketable securities or instruments in an organised contract market or system.
 - ii. It is understood that the members of the governing, management or supervisory bodies of an issuing company or the emission allowance market participant have reserved access to privileged information, as well as whoever participates in the capital of the issuer or in the emission allowance market participant, whoever knows the privileged information as a result of exercising their professional or business activity, or in the performance of their duties; and whoever obtains the privileged information through a criminal activity.
 - iii. Anyone shall likewise be prohibited from obtaining privileged information, without having reserved access to it, when this privileged information is obtained in any way other than the manners indicated in the previous section and they use it knowing that it is privileged information.
5. The Nueva Pescanova Group professionals must not:
- a. Erase, damage, deteriorate, alter, delete or make the data, computer programs or electronic files of third parties inaccessible.
